

Constitution of the Balint Society

adopted on the 9th April 2016

Part 1

1. Adoption of the constitution

The association and its property will be administered and managed in accordance with the provisions in Parts 1 and 2 of this constitution.

2. Name

The association's name is The Balint Society (and in this document it is called the Society).

3. Objects

To promote and advance discussion groups using the Balint method, and research and studies on the psychological aspects of health and social care, with special reference to the professional–patient / client relationship and to disseminate this knowledge beyond the Society for the improvement of the care of the public at large.

Nothing in this constitution shall authorise an application of the property of the Society for purposes which are not charitable in accordance with section 7 of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and/or section 2 of the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008.

4. Application of income and property

4.1 The income and property of the Society shall be applied solely towards the promotion of the objects.

(a) Any member of the Society is entitled to be reimbursed from the property of the Society or may pay out of such property reasonable expenses properly incurred by him or her when acting on behalf of the Society.

(b) A Society trustee may benefit from trustee indemnity insurance cover purchased at the Society's expense in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 189 of the Charities Act 2011.

4.2 None of the income or property of the Society may be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend bonus or otherwise by way of profit to any member of the Society. This does not prevent a member who is not also a trustee from receiving:

(a) a benefit from the Society in the capacity of a beneficiary of the Society;

- (b) reasonable and proper remuneration for any goods or services supplied to the Society.

4.3 Nothing in this clause shall prevent a trustee or connected person receiving any benefit or payment which is authorised by Clause 5.

5. Benefits and payments to Society trustees and connected persons

5.1 General provisions

No trustee or connected person may:

- (a) buy or receive any goods or services from the Society on terms preferential to those applicable to members of the public;
- (b) sell goods, services or any interest in land to the Society;
- (c) be employed by, or receive any remuneration from, the Society;
- (d) receive any other financial benefit from the Society;

unless the payment is permitted by sub-clause (2) of this clause, or authorised by the court or the Charity Commission ('the Commission'). In this clause, a 'financial benefit' means a benefit, direct or indirect, which is either money or has a monetary value.

5.2 Scope and powers permitting trustees' or connected persons' benefits

- (a) A trustee or connected person may receive a benefit from the Society as a beneficiary of the Society provided that a majority of the trustees do not benefit in this way.
- (b) A trustee or connected person may enter into a contract for the supply of services, or of goods that are supplied in connection with the provision of services, to the Society where that is permitted in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 185 of the Charities Act 2011.
- (c) A trustee may enter into a contract for the supply of services on behalf of the Society where such a contract is agreed by a majority of the trustees to be in furtherance of the Society's objectives.
- (d) Subject to sub-clause (3) of this clause a trustee or connected person may provide the Society with goods that are not supplied in connection with services provided to the Society by the trustee or connected person.
- (e) A trustee or connected person may receive interest on money lent to the Society at a reasonable and proper rate which must be not more than the Bank of England bank rate (also known as the base rate).

- (f) A trustee or connected person may receive rent for premises let by the trustee or connected person to the Society. The amount of the rent and the other terms of the lease must be reasonable and proper. The trustee concerned must withdraw from any meeting at which such a proposal or the rent or other terms of the lease are under discussion.
- (g) A trustee or connected person may take part in the normal trading and fundraising activities of the Society on the same terms as members of the public.
- (h) A trustee may receive reasonable and proper remuneration for time and expenses spent preparing, travelling to and delivering training or education to be delivered to the Society's members or to a third party on behalf of the Society, up to a maximum amount as agreed by Council per training session delivered.

5.3 Payment for supply of goods only – controls

The Society and its Society trustees may only rely upon the authority provided by sub-clause 2(c) of this clause if each of the following conditions is satisfied:

- (a) The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods is set out in an agreement in writing between the Society and the trustee or connected person supplying the goods ('the supplier') under which the supplier is to supply the goods in question to or on behalf of the Society.
- (b) The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods does not exceed what is reasonable in the circumstances for the supply of the goods in question.
- (c) The other trustees are satisfied that it is in the best interests of the Society to contract with the supplier rather than with someone who is not a trustee or connected person. In reaching that decision the trustees must balance the advantage of contracting with a trustee or connected person against the disadvantages of doing so.
- (d) The supplier is absent from the part of any meeting at which there is discussion of the proposal to enter into a contract or arrangement with him or her or it with regard to the supply of goods to the Society.

- (e) The supplier does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when calculating whether a quorum of trustees is present at the meeting.
- (f) The reason for their decision is recorded by the trustees in the minute book.
- (g) A majority of the trustees then in office are not in receipt of remuneration or payments authorized by clause 5.

5.4 In sub-clauses (2) and (3) of this clause:

- (a) 'the Society' includes any company in which the Society:
 - (i) holds more than 50% of the shares; or
 - (ii) controls more than 50% of the voting rights attached to the shares; or
 - (iii) has the right to appoint one or more trustees to the board of the company.
- (b) 'connected person' includes any person within the definition set out in clause 34 (Interpretation).

6. Dissolution

- 6.1 If the members resolve to dissolve the Society the trustees will remain in office as trustees and be responsible for winding up the affairs of the Society in accordance with this clause.
- 6.2 The trustees must collect in all the assets of the Society and must pay or make provision for all the liabilities of the Society.
- 6.3 Ordinary members of the Society have no liability to contribute to its assets and no personal responsibility for settling its debts and liabilities.
- 6.4 The trustees must apply any remaining property or money:
 - (a) directly for the objects;
 - (b) by transfer to any Society or charities for purposes the same as or similar to the Society;
 - (c) in such other manner as the Charity Commission for England and Wales ('the Commission') may approve in writing in advance.
- 6.5 The members may pass a resolution before or at the same time as the resolution to dissolve the Society specifying the manner in which the trustees are to apply the remaining property or assets of the Society and the trustees must comply with the resolution if it is consistent with paragraphs (a) – (c) inclusive in sub-clause (3) above.

6.6 In no circumstances shall the net assets of the Society be paid to or distributed among the members of the Society (except to a member that is itself a Society).

6.7 The trustees must notify the Commission promptly that the Society has been dissolved. If the trustees are obliged to send the Society's accounts to the Commission for the accounting period which ended before its dissolution, they must send the Commission the Society's final accounts.

7. Amendment of constitution

7.1 The Society may amend any provision contained in Part 1 of this constitution provided that:

- (a) no amendment may be made that would have the effect of making the Society cease to be a Society at law;
- (b) no amendment may be made to alter the objects if the change would undermine or work against the previous objects of the Society;
- (c) no amendment may be made to clauses 4 or 5 without the prior written consent of the Commission;
- (d) any resolution to amend a provision of Part 1 of this constitution is passed by not less than two thirds of the members present and voting at a general meeting.

7.2 Any provision contained in Part 2 of this constitution may be amended, provided that any such amendment is made by resolution passed by a simple majority of the members present and voting at a general meeting.

7.3 A copy of any resolution amending this constitution shall be sent to the Commission within twenty one days of it being passed.

8.2 Persons considered to be of outstanding merit by the Society shall be eligible for Honorary Membership. Subsequent nominations for Honorary Membership shall be proposed by the trustees who will submit suitable names for election at the Annual General Meeting.

- (a) The trustees may only refuse an application for membership if, acting reasonably and properly, they consider it to be in the best interests of the Society to refuse the application.
- (b) The trustees must inform the applicant in writing of the reasons for the refusal within twenty-one days of the decision.
- (c) The trustees must consider any written representations the applicant may make about the decision. The trustees' decision following any written representations must be notified to the applicant in writing but shall be final.

- 9.4 the member is removed from membership by a resolution of the trustees that it is in the best interests of the Society that his or her membership is terminated. A resolution to remove a member from membership may only be passed if:
 - (a) the member has been given at least twenty one days' notice in writing of the meeting of the trustees at which the resolution will be proposed and the reasons why it is to be proposed;
 - (b) the member or, at the option of the member, the member's representative (who need not be a member of the Society) has been allowed to make representations to the meeting.

If the trustees fail to hold the meeting within twenty-eight days of the request, the members may proceed to call a special general meeting but in doing so they must comply with the provisions of this constitution.

11. Notice

11.1 The minimum period of notice required to hold any general meeting of the Society is fourteen clear days from the date on which the notice is deemed to have been given.

11.2 A general meeting may be called by shorter notice, if it is so agreed by all the members entitled to attend and vote.

12.4 The trustees must re-convene the meeting and must give at least seven clear days' notice of the re-convened meeting stating the date time and place of the meeting.

12.5 If no quorum is present at the re-convened meeting within fifteen minutes of the time specified for the start of the meeting the members present at that time shall constitute the quorum for that meeting.

13. Chair

13.1 General meetings shall be chaired by the person who has been elected as Chair.

13.2 If there is no such person or he or she is not present within fifteen minutes of the time appointed for the meeting a trustee nominated by the trustees shall chair the meeting.

13.3 If there is only one trustee present and willing to act, he or she shall chair the meeting.

14. Adjournments
